

The English Community Outreach Project

„The English Community Outreach Project combines the liturgical tradition of the German Protestant Church with the multi-faceted spirit of the United Church of Christ (USA). Worship includes a variety of musical traditions: classical, Appalachian and contemporary with roots in African, American, and European musical traditions.“

A former classical singer, Rev. Rosalind Gnat's university studies include Music Performance at Stetson University, Sociology (Bachelor of Arts) at Emory University and a Master of Divinity, focusing on Social Ethics and New Testament at Union Theological Seminary in the city of New York.

“We need each other as companions on this journey. We need to talk together about what it means to practice peace in our public and private lives.”

A community with Spirit

Welcoming the curious, the critical thinkers, the seekers

People looking for spiritual and intellectual connection.

Children and youth are always welcome

Young folks can enjoy the “Children’s Chapel” during sanctuary services. Our Youth sing in the choir and are readers for sanctuary worship. Those with some ability in German are welcome to be part of the Bergkirche Confirmation class.
